Courts Make Narcotics A Sort of Grown-Ups Game

It's heartbreaking to see grown men cry! In essence, that's what happened in Superior Court Thursday as an aftermath of the apprehension of 42 young people involved in an Imperial Beach narcotics raid. Arresting officers were brought to tears by the attitude of the court.

The 42 suspects picked up by Narcotics Bureau agents were juvenile to adults 22 years of age. Ten to 20 more arrests are anticipated as other members of the narcotics ring are run down. All are charged with use and possession of narcotics and dangerous drugs.

Undercover agents had worked six months on the case. They had spent several thousand dollars for numerous purchases of drugs and narcotics which included heroin, marijuana, LSD, STP, seconal, hashish, and amphetamine sulphate.

The cause for tears came in Superior Court when Judge Richard B. Ault released six of the first seven defendants on their own recognizance Friday. One was held on a ridiculously low $1,000 bail.

One suspect had three prior narcotics complaints on the record — one as a juvenile; two as an adult. He also had a string of unresolved traffic violations. He was one of those released.

One suspect the court released appeared to still be "high" on narcotics, according to an officer.

Those captured comprised the largest narcotics ring ever "busted" in the South Bay area according to Joe House, supervising agent of the State Narcotics Bureau. Among those apprehended was a Lemon Grove man, Peter B. Caballero, of 1855 Eldora St.

The officers who spent all that time — and who spent several thousands of the taxpayers dollars buying evidence — must have been extremely dispirited. One man who had been on the case for two days and a night prior to the arraignment was disconsolate.

What has caused our courts to handle narcotics violators so benignly? Lawmakers didn't intend it so. The penal code makes it a felony to buy, sell, use, possess or give away narcotics.

The courts have become so casual concerning youth and narcotics that many youngsters view the "court game" as a necessary inconvenience to placate the old folks.

An officer, not necessarily one involved in the arrests, said some of the suspects would be back in Imperial Beach, holding a "pot" party before the arresting officers could complete their reports.

These misguided drug-users apparently believe that mass lawbreaking can cause the watering-down of our narcotics laws and the repeal of the marijuana controls as it did alcohol a generation ago.

On the other side of the coin is the report of Dr. Austin Sellery, superintendent of the Grossmont Union High School District, who once complained that police officers in a specific district were not following through when high school students were turned in for narcotics involvement.

"If we arrested all the kids in high school using narcotics, there'd be more kids in jail than in the classrooms," the officer is reported to have said.

So juveniles and young adults have been led to know that courts will real lightly with them as they face narcotics complaints, so they have little to fear. Cops now realize that apprehending narcotics users is a waste of time and this has led to such incongruities as 13-year old "pushers" in our local school system.

What started all this mess that confuses, confounds and frustrates parents, teachers, and concerned citizens?

Certainly the ridiculous decisions handed down by L. B. Johnson's Supreme Court can be blamed since they ordered more and more rights be given to law breakers with less and less rights for the legally injured — and the cops.

It is incomprehensible that we have lost control of the morals of our own children by stupid edicts of stupid men who have won political-plum posts on the Supreme Court of them all. And as matters stand today, nothing; no, nothing at all, can be done to salvage the character of our nation's greatest resource — our youth.

GROSSMONT J.C.

Student Unrest Policy Formulated

The Grossmont College board of trustees has approved guideline to combat campus student disturbances, if they occur. The action came Tuesday night at a board meeting.

The policy has been tabbed as a temporary one covering undesirable student activities. Vigorous objections came from both the faculty and student leaders.

After rejecting requests to delay action on the matter for at least a month, the board put into effect a policy which calls for expulsion, suspension or criminal prosecution of students who become involved in activities disrupting the educational process.

The policy also includes action which endangers the safety of other students or school officials or damage to college property.

The board agreed that a policy should be worked out by the student and faculty senates with administrators and a substitute be presented to the trustees for approval.

Robert Dryden, a member of the board said that the move came from several reasons. The administration would not be able to make any firm moves in case of trouble, he said.

"We have an element that country could possibly get out of hand. This is protecting the rights of the students who really that we did. It is happening want to get something out of throughout the colleges in the college."

TRUSTEES ROUND OUT INCREASES

Raises Totaling 2% Given Non-Teachers

Following closely in the salary footsteps of Lemon Grove Elementary School District teachers, eleven administrative employees and 130 classified employees of the district were awarded raises this week.

The approval was given Tuesday night at a school board meeting which was delayed one day by Veterans Day holiday.

The increase followed by one board meeting a $200 across-the-board raise given the teachers.

The non-teaching group increase totals $13,500 a year or 2%. The teachers group received raises amounting to $30,000. Raises for both groups are effective as of Nov. 1.

Eleven administrators were awarded a total of $3,500 a year. 130 classified employees, of whom 70 are hourly workers, will get $10,000 more for the year.

The raises will not effect the local property tax. The funds, said Byron Netzel, district superintendent, comes from Federal Impact Funds. The district had anticipated only 80% of these funds for 1967-68. The district was informed last month that Impact Funds would be paid on the basis of 100 percent. The Federal money was made available via deficit appropriations. Impact Funds are paid school

Association Readies Board Presentation

By JACK POLLARD
News Editor

Members of the Monte Vista Swimming Association are again going to ask the Grossmont Union High School District Governing Board to accept a free swimming pool for Monte Vista High School.

This will be the third time that the group of parents of students at the school who are participating in swimming activities will ask the board to accept the free $100,000 to $150,000 pool. The move is expected within six to eight weeks.

Trustees of the district have turned the measure down the last time by a vote of 2-2. Of the five members on the board, a measure must get at least a 3-2 vote to pass.

Board members said that the measure failed to pass because of a $30,000 operational cost that the district would have to pay.

Currently, some 85 boys and 45 girls are taking part in swimming programs at Monte Vista High School.

The programs include swimming competition with other schools ranging from Mt. Miguel High School to those with Oceanside high.

Fred Wadsworth, chairman of the physical education department and coach of the water polo and swimming teams of the school said that he is about to push the panic button.

He said, "With the initiation of water sports in 1965, and the comparative growth and interest that is gaining we are going to face a problem."

"We are currently using the Carmen Ranch pool, the Homeland Swimming pool and the National City Municipal pool. All of these are being rented to us on a time basis."

With an expansion in the swimming program, we will be faced with renting time at another pool in the area. This is where we are going to have problems."

Mrs. L. V. Julihn, spokesman for the Swimming Association

Salaries Are Problem

It was pointed out that the $30,000 figure represents mostly salaries of teacher-aids or instructors to handle the program.

The figure also includes the possibility that of deriving an income from the use of the pool during after school hours or during the summer months.

With this in mind, a controlling agent would have to be found to administer the program. The area around Monte Vista School is not included in the Spring Valley Recreational District.

Team Up

Dr. Austin Seller, superintendent of the Grossmont Union High School District said that a high school swimming program is hard to beat.

He also said, "If the school district could team up with another agency to provide a program of administration for the pool, it would be great."

"It seems to me that this is a situation where the sharing of the costs belong to those in the area in question."

"It would offer to those living in that area a fine recreational facility as well as a constructional recreation facility for the school."

"I hope that the people working on this do not get discouraged with what they are trying to do. With continued interest, I am sure that something could be worked out in this direction."

One board member pointed out that Monte Vista now has a stadium and some of the other schools in the district do not.

The ones that do have stadiums suitable for inter-school athletic contests were built through community support and not with district bonds he said.

Seven of the eight schools in the district have swimming programs for boys while six schools have programs involving girls.

Officials Say Post Mail Early

The Lemon Grove Chamber of Commerce, local merchants and the postmaster of the Lemon Grove Post Office has recommended that area residents do their Christmas shopping and mailing now.

Francis Faucher, postmaster, said that better service is available now than what can be expected as the Christmas rush grows.

He said that gift parcels headed for the eastern states should be postmarked no later than Dec. 2 for prompt delivery. For the central states, Dec. 7; western states, Dec. 12 and local gift parcels should not be postmarked no later than Dec. 16.

For greeting cards, a Dec. 11 postmark would insure senders that their cards would be delivered before Christmas. In the central states, Dec. 13; western states, Dec. 15, while Calif. and local greeting cards should be mailed by Dec. 17.

Faucher said that Christmas gifts for service men overseas should be mailed by the following dates to insure delivery prior to Dec. 25: Space Available (SAM), Nov. 23; Parcel Airlift (PAL), Nov. 30 and Air Mail, Dec. 11.

All greeting cards require 6 cent postage this year. Faucher said that greeting cards will be forwarded or returned to the sender if undeliverable.

INSTALLED: Clifford Hites (left) and Mrs. Stanley Franc (right) were installed as officers for the World War I Veterans, Foot-hills Barracks No. 1774 at the Lemon Grove VFW Hall on Nov. 6. Hites will serve a term as commander of the division while Mrs. Franc moved into her third term as president of the auxiliary.

Others taking office included Mrs. S. L. Du-vall, sr. vice commander; Carl H. Olsen, jr. vice commander; M. C. Elledge, chaplain; W. D. Applegate, quartermaster and W. R. Shimp, trustee.

Mrs. Celestine Radasa was installed as sr. vice president of the Aux., while Mrs. Russell Denmark, jr., as jr. vice president; Mrs. George Johnson, treas.; Mrs. Winn Applegate, chaplain; Mrs. Clifford Hites, guard; Mrs. Charles Noakes, conductress; Mrs. Eva Emerick, asst. conductress; and Mrs. Ernest Johnson as trustee.

County Tax Department Gets Partial Touch Of New Ways

After all these years the County Tax Collector's Department is streamlining itself.

Not a lot, mind you — but enough to remind us that its stiffening of the joints is not complete.

No longer do you have to send the entire tax bill in with the remittance. There's a stub, such as that which comes with a gasoline credit statement, which is to be torn off and sent in while the property owner because the bill contains legal description, the

After the stub is sent to the Collector he is reminded by still another stub, which was there all the time between the (Cont. on Page 8)

National Family Health Week Noted By Dr. Thomas R. Early

Dr. Thomas R. Early, a Lemon Grove-La Mesa physician and president of the San Diego Academy of General Practice, has announced that Nov. 17-23 has been designated, by Presidential Proclamation, as National Family Health Week.

The week is designed to help focus public attention on the importance of the family doctor in the nation's health care system.

According to Dr. Early, the San Diego Academy of General Practice, with a membership of 275 physicians throughout the county, is the largest specialty group of the San Diego County Medical Society.

"As the modern health care structure of the country becomes more complex," Dr. Early said, "the role of the family physician is increasingly important."

"He is the primary source of medical assistance to families faced with a growing, confusing array of specialists and technicians."

President Lyndon B. Johnson's recent proclamation emphasizes the evolution that has taken place in our health services, Dr. Early stated, which has increased the medical responsibility of the family doctor.

"He is the crucial link between the family and the highly specialized services of modern health science," the proclamation states.

The concept of National Family Health Week was created by the American Academy of General Practice, the national professional association of general practitioners of medicine.

Its more than 30,000 members are concerned with expanding the number of family doctors and with maintaining the quality of their medical service to American families, Dr. Early said.

Musical Memorial Program Offered

Musical Merit Foundation will offer a program in memory of Gilbert Back Saturday evening, Dec. 14, in the Music Auditorium of San Diego State College, 8:30 p.m.

Back, Professor Emeritus of the music faculty of San Diego State and a member of the Musical Merit Board, died last year.

The Musical Merit memorial program will be presented by his pupils and friends. Mary Gerard, a Back violin pupil and assistant, will open the program. Her pianist will be Joanna Graudan, a long-time friend and colleague of Back's.

Joanna Graudan, a concert pianist of international reputation presently teaching at the University of Southern California at Los Angeles, will also perform.

Donations will be accepted at the concert for the Gilbert Back Memorial Scholarship to be used for future string students at San Diego State College.

Forget TB? We can't!

As ancient as the Pyramids, but millions of Americans are still involved with it:

90,000 people are known to have active disease

Hundreds of thousands once had active TB and might relapse.

Social Security News

This newspaper presents this question and answer column about the Social Security program as a public service to our readers. The questions are those most frequently asked about Social Security. The answers are provided by Sumio Oto, El Cajon Social Security District Manager.

Q. Are the new rules for determining a child's dependency on a working mother limited to survivor benefits only?

A. No, they are not. If a mother who is receiving Social Security retirement or disability benefits, based on her own earnings, has unmarried children under age 18, or between 18 and 22 and full-time students, or who are over 18 but disabled before 18, monthly benefits may now be payable for them.

Q. Because of varicose veins, I have to wear elastic stockings. Should I claim reimbursement for the stockings from Medicare?

A. No. Although leg, arm, back and neck braces are covered, elastic stockings do not come within the definition of braces.

Q. My mother needs help with her social security claim, but has been ill and unable to visit the office. What should she do?

A. A visit to the local office is preferred, but many social security matters can be handled by mail or telephone. If this is not possible, and your mother cannot travel to the office, a representative from the office will visit her at home.

Q. My dentist thought it best that I be hospitalized for the extraction of my teeth in preparation for dentures. I didn't expect Medicare to pay for the dentist, but I was shocked when the hospital refused to bill Medicare for the hospital charges. Were they wrong?

A. No. Where a patient is hospitalized only for noncovered dental treatment, neither the professional services of the dentist nor the inpatient hospital services are covered by Medicare.

The El Cajon Social Security Office is located at 570 North Second st., in El Cajon. Office hours are from 8:30 a.m. until 4:30 p.m. Monday through Friday, and until 7:30 p.m. on Wednesdays. The telephone number is 442-0851.

Hardison's Telespanish

by James Hardison

Some of the stores in Tijuana and other parts of Baja California have signs with "Kilo" written on them. What does this mean? There are many stores (mostly stores where groceries are sold), that have "Kilo" written as an abbreviated form of the word "kilogram" (kilogram) on their signs. The "kilogram" is the basic unit of weight measurement for most Spanish speaking countries.

Many vegetables and other foods are sold by the "kilo" (KEE-loh). There are "papas" (potatoes), "lechuga" (lettuce), "cebollas" (onions), "zanahorias" (carrots), and even "frijoles" (beans).

The "Kilo" is equivalent to two and two tenths pounds. This makes the mathematics very easy for us "Norteamericanos." All we have to do is multiply by 2.2 to determine the number of "libras" (pounds) in a "Kilo" measurement. For example, a steak that sells for $1.50 for each "Kilo" and weighs "dos Kilos" will weigh 4.4 pounds. The most per pound is determined by dividing the number of "Kilos" by 2.2. In this case, the $1.50 would be divided by 2.2 resulting in a cost of 68c per pound. In an language, that is a good price for steak.

An abbreviation that is sometimes confused with "Kilo" is "Kil." This abbreviation may be seen along the highways and is an indicators to tell the number of kilometers distance from the marker to the nearest town or capital city. The "kilometro" (kilometer), as it is referred to in its complete form, is approximately six tenths of a mile, or more precisely, .62 of a mile. Thus, we may determine the number of kilometers in say 100 kilometers by multiplying by .62 which is 62 miles.

"Kilos" and "kilometros" are found in today's practice phrases. Read them over and then practice saying them with the recorded voice when you dial 276-2762.

Sheriff Moves Office To Former Bank Bldg.

SAN DIEGO (CNA) — The lease of new quarters for the sheriff's substation in Lemon Grove at 7859 Broadway at $350 a month was approved on Tuesday by the county board of supervisors. The location is adjacent to Winchell's Donut shop, the site of considerable juvenile disturbances.

The former bank building contains much more adequate space than the present office on Main st., according to Chief Administrative Officer Fred Morey, at 2922 square feet as against 705.

The old vault room, Morey said, by remodeling could be used as a holding cell, although there are no plans to do this at present. The building originally housed the U. S. National Bank.

Morey said Sheriff Joe O'Connor told him that the present office is inadequate because of increased law enforcement activity and additional personnel. The new office, he said, could relieve some of the overcrowding at the El Cajon branch office.

A new substation and jail is planned for El Cajon, but it is not expected that they will be ready for occupancy before 1972.

The bank building is carpeted in the primary office and public areas, is air conditioned, includes three restrooms, and has space for storage.

There will be space for the sheriff's selective enforcement unit and juvenile officers who work in the area on an occasional basis, Morey said.

The building is owned by investors Harry Griffen and J. M. Zung.

Letters To The Editor

Dear Editor:

My family and I are Lemon Grove expatriates, longing to return, who each week eagerly await the mail delivery with our copy of your newspaper. The children, Penny and Anita, look forward to the news of their friends and classmates at Mt. Miguel and Monterey Heights Schools while my wife and I enjoy your "Dimmer View" column.

In the September 26th issue of the Review, your column discussed the appearance of Cleaver at the University of California and urged your readers to write in protest to the Chairman of the Board of Regents and the President of UC at Berkeley.

I needed no urging, just an address which you supplied. My letters of protest are in the mail. In providing those addresses, I believe that you did the public a great service and I hope that a great many of your readers heeded your urging.

I believe, however, that you could have gone even further by supplying additional names and addresses.

The address of the general public in failing to let their duly elected representatives know how they feel about the current issues will result in further chaos and disaster, not only the campus but all over the nation.

Many of us are appalled at the happenings going on in our nation and the only protest made is a few choice swear words as we lay down the newspaper or turn off the TV news. We must snap out of our lethargy and let our representatives in all forms of government know how we feel.

There are two things which prevent Mr. Average Citizen from writing a letter to an Office Holder. The first is apathy. The other is the lack of a proper name and address.

I believe that our newspapers can do much to overcome both of these problems with a concerted drive to urge our citizens to help govern our city, county, state and nation by letting our representatives know how we feel about the issues that face us.

In order to provide the citizens with the names and addresses of the men and women who represent us in all forms of government, might I suggest that you print this information in a box, suitable for clipping out.

If this great country of ours is to continue to be ruled by a government of, by and for the people, then the people will have to take a more active interest and bring to a halt the practice in which our legislators hear only from the dissident minorities who speak through demonstrations, riots and bizarre announcements and displays.

I shall endeavor to convince the newspaper editors in this area to carry out a campaign to convince the citizens to speak out. I sincerely hope that many citizens will "get the lead out" and write.

Sincerely,
Edwin R. Varley

Dear Editor:

Believe it or not, our great (?) Supreme Court has ruled that a convicted criminal doesn't have to register his gun and can't be prosecuted for failing to do so.

If a national gun registration law is passed, every law-abiding citizen would have to register his weapon or face a fine and/or imprisonment; but no one ever convicted of a felony would have to register his gun, because on January 29, 1968, the U.S. Supreme Court announced its decision in a case Haynes vs. U.S., No. 236, which had arisen under gun control laws already on the books. (Sections 5841 and 5851 of the Internal Revenue Code).

The Court said that a person whose ownership of a firearm was illegal, because he was a convicted criminal, could not be forced to register it, or prosecuted for having it in his possession, because this would violate his rights under the Fifth Amendment against self-incrimination!

Perhaps the objective of gun registration now in confiscation later. Only a totalitarian, tyrannical government need fear its own citizens.

Sincerely,

Due to the intelligent and kind wording of your letter (subscription renewal notice) I have decided to keep your weekly visits coming to my home.

I have just returned from a six week visit to Europe, London, Germany, Belgium, and of course, Spain where I visited my son Robert Maple and his wife and my two little granddaughters in Seville, Spain.

I am very glad to be home again in the good old U.S.A. and particularly back to Lemon Grove.

Thank you,
Your friend,
Helen Maple

Dear Editor:

No Southerner has been elected President for 100 years. Wilson and Eisenhower were born in the South but were not Southerners. Johnson was born in West Texas. He has repeatedly described himself as a Westerner and not as a Southerner.

Two major reasons why the White House has been closed to Southerners since the Reconstruction era:

(1) Most Northern school systems carefully indoctrinate children to believe falsely that Southerners mistreat negroes, and that Southern whites are somehow inferior in culture and intelligence to other Americans.

(2) The Electoral College system was set up by the founding fathers to protect the rights of states. But through connivance of Democrat and Republican leaders, the electoral system has been used to "lock out" the South for 100 years.

Ease of travel has now made it possible for many Northerners to go South and to see that there isn't much difference between them and the people of Dixie — that lynching parties do not roam the streets — and that Southern white children are as clean and neat as those in the rest of the country.

But the big gain for the South is that Southerners are opposed to socialism, communism and rioting so intensely that they are willing to break away from "partyism". This has made it possible for George Wallace to use the electoral system to put together enough sure votes to knock on the White House door.

Frightened "liberals" are now attacking the electoral system and want to change the rules. Perhaps they are frightened because the South has once again found a way to use the rules to give any American — even an ex-convict driver — a chance at the White House.

Sincerely,
M.R. Foley

SPRUCING UP; Larry L. Hunter, owner of Hunter's Nursery, 3110 Sweetwater, Lemon Grove has completed work on some 750 cement boxes that required the planting of 1,400 trees in them. They will be used to dress up downtown San Diego. Hunter was awarded the contract for the work. He and a crew of five men started on the job two weeks ago. They are now in the process of delivery to the City of San Diego.

Award Presented To Roger Wilson; Designs, Builds Money Saving Plate

Roger Wilson, of 2571 Mulder st., Lemon Grove has received a special award from the American Water Works Association, Calif. section, for an invention being used by the Helix Irrigation District.

Wilson, a purification technician for the District at the R. M. Levy Water Treatment and Filtration plant in Lakeside designed and built a weir plate used to prevent water from flowing into mixing basins at the plant.

The plates are lighter, more efficient and less expensive than commercially made steel plates. He and Ray Daddario of El Cajon both worked on the project.

Prior to the development of the new plates, a crane was required to transport the older ones for installation. Now the job can be performed by one man.

The plywood plates are made with a fiberglass cover.

One man can install the equipment.

L. L. Flore, chief chemist and supervisor at the treatment plant said that the wooden plates which cost only one-tenth of the cost of those made commercially will save the district money every time they are used.

Steve Bailey Leaves Mark On Santana, Awaits Monte Vista High For 2nd Crack

By JOHN NICHOLSON
Mt. Miguel Sports Writer

Steve Bailey who ran for touchdowns all night left his mark as the Mt. Miguel High School football team moved to an overwhelming 47-7 victory over highly touted Santana, last Friday.

Mt. Miguel, now holding a 33 league record, will wind up the Grossmont race tomorrow night when they travel to Monte Vista.

The Miguel squad was unable to score in the first quarter against Santana's Sultans, and Coach Ben Cipriani complained to his players that "they're out-hittin' us, men!"

The Matadors broke the scoring ice about halfway through the second quarter when Steve Bailey ran 60 yards to the one yard-line and smashed across second later for the score.

Monte Vista, who tied Santana a couple of weeks ago, will be trying to stop the backfield, running that the Matadors have been putting together the last couple of games.

The winless Monarchs have yet to make an impressive showing in their new (only one year old) stadium. Their record stands at 0-5-1 in league play.

Voska said that golfing merchandise will also be awarded in the golf tournament that will take place on the short 18 hole course at Singing Hills. He pointed out that some 35 persons had signed up as of Monday of this week.

Around Spring Valley

Year Snaps At Fast Speed; Valley Looks Ahead To 1969

By TOMMY THOMAS
Editor

The year 1968 has rolled along rather swiftly, particularly here in Spring Valley, as we, here on the paper, have been especially busy.

In a few more weeks, and days, it will be 1969. That means the year of the San Diego Centennial celebration, observing 200 years of San Diego discovery, and Lemon Grove's 100th anniversary.

Seems like everyone is busy at something or another preparing for the big event. Not too long ago a public relations man from the Centennial committee spoke at a meeting in La Mesa, talking for 30 or 45 minutes on what has been done and future of the event.

Here in Spring Valley the S.V. Historical Society plans an event for the Centennial; they will represent Betty Seymour Robinson's pageant of the history of Spring Valley, as it was presented a few years ago on a rude stage in front of the adobe house (Bancroft Ranch House).

Presentation of the pageant has been scheduled for the first week of October, 1969 (we hope with some of the original cast, as two of the original cast have since passed away).

The P. R. man for the Centennial spoke of many areas decorating with colored lights and keeping them on to a late hour of the night as part of their contribution in the event.

In Spring Valley and Brookside the annual Christmas lights decorations contest will soon be under way, as a forerunner to the Centennial, with prizes to be awarded to the top winners.

The P. R. man also spoke on cleaning San Diego County areas to make a good impression on the tourists who will be visiting San Diego during 1969. A few years ago in Spring Valley, the local Chamber of Commerce instituted a move to clean up the ever-growing tumble weed crop marring the landscape of our Valley.

The hue and cry was taken up by the S.V. Kiwanis Club and the S.V. Fire Department, and it has become an annual event to clear out the weeds.

Mr. and Mrs. (Roy and Jo) Crouch of 2924 Helix st., Spring Valley, were saddened recently, by the loss of their son-in-law.

He was Irvin "Tex" Kersey, 53, of Lakewood, Calif., who passed away on Oct. 28. He is survived by his wife and three grown children.

"Tex" had visited Spring Valley several times and had attended church here. He was a geologist for a big oil drilling company.

Roy and Jo Crouch had been to Lakewood to pay Tex a visit earlier during his illness.

They had returned to Spring Valley and had received a phone call from Mrs. Kersey saying Tex was much worse and would Roy and Jo return to Lakewood.

It was while on the return trip to Lakewood that Tex passed away.

Several of the women of the S.V. Woman's Club have been about this summer:

Reta Hulet and husband Dale of Lemon s., taking their poodle, vacationed in Northern California, having an opportunity to see many of the big trees.

Ruth Taylor of Lamar st., a past president of S.V. Woman's Club, has been in Texas three times since January. She and hubby, Rolan, recently returned from Guaymas, Mexico.

We understand that Mrs. Donald (Lucile) Irwin of Rogers rd., S.V. and hubby are grandparents. Connie Jeane Love was born July 13 to the Irwin daughter, Mrs. Martha Love.

Incidentally, the Irwin son, PFC Richard Irwin paid a visit to his parents when he graduated from Army school (with honors) for Medic at Ft. Sam Houston.

He is now serving at Ft. Leavenworth, Kan. as an operating room technician.

Incidentally, also, Papa Do, is a former member of Spring Valley Kiwanis Club.

Mrs. Thelma Lewis of Lamar st. and hubby, Warren, went to Massachusetts in July to visit daughter Caroline and family.

While there they learned a lot about the early history of this country and a lot more about their own grandchildren.

Mary Clark, formerly of Bancroft dr., S.V. and hubby

Bruce D. Jordan Assigned To S.V. Bank Of America

Bruce D. Jordan has been assigned to the loan department of Bank of America's Sweetwater-Jamacha branch in Spring Valley. S. E. Taylor manager of the bank, said.

Jordan, who joined the bank in 1966, assumes his new position after serving in a similar capacity for the past year at the 58th and University branch in San Diego.

He is a native of Hudson, New York and graduated from Central Catholic High School in Penn. and attended St. Bernardine of Siena College in New York as well as Muhlenberg College in Penn.

He has also studied courses at the American Institute of Banking.

Immediately after joining the bank, Jordan was placed in the operations training program in the San Diego Main Office, where he was assigned for his first year.

He and his wife, Michele, and their one-year-old daughter, Jacqueline, live at 4142 Meade ave., San Diego.

National Champ Midget Auto Race Slated At Cajon Speedway November 23

The United States Auto Club will return to Cajon Speedway Nov. 23 for a 50 Lap National Championship Midget Auto Race.

Last winter U.S.A.C. raced at Cajon Speedway three times with Bill Vukovich winning the Nov. and Feb. races and Henry Penns from Illinois winning the last race in Mar.

Since that time the U.S.A.C. Midget division have enjoyed one of their seasons in at least ten years.

John Banks, Cajon Speedway's representative pointed out that last winter's Midget races were run during the day and we had great racing.

This fall the races will be at night and fans can expect even faster and closer races than before. There is a good chance all the U.S.A.C. track records at Cajon Speedway will be broken in the Nov. race.

Although the official entry blanks are not available at the present time, Auto racing fans can expect a better field of cars and drivers this fall than Cajon Speedway had last year at their U.S.A.C. Auto Races. The date Nov. 23 was picked to tie in with three other National Championship Midget Races scheduled for California and Arizona, which will bring even more of the Midwest and Eastern cars and drivers out.

Last winter U.S.A.C. races at Cajon Speedway saw In-

Move Into County Championships

Two Grove Teams Win Pop Warner Football Crowns

Two Lemon Grove Pop Warner football teams have captured division titles. The Roadrunners and the Brahmas knocked off two tough opponents to take the crowns Saturday.

The Roadrunners downed El Cajon 29-13 at Poway to take the Midget National League crown while the Brahmas nailed Escondido two hours earlier, 28-6 to take the Pee Wee Eastern League title.

Both teams will move into play for the county title. On Saturday, Nov. 16, the Brahmas will take on the Chula Vista Pee Wees in a game site that had not been announced by press time of this newspaper.

On Nov. 23, the Roadrunners will face Oceanside, the American League champs. Oceanside has an 8-0 record while the locals sport an 8-1 standing.

El Cajon jumped off with an early start in Saturday's game as they stepped across the goal line in the opening minutes of play to get an early 7-0 lead.

The Roadrunners came back in less than three minutes when Doug Gegax slipped around the left side, in a ten yard run for the score. Sam Smith tied it up with the extra point.

Smith put the Runners on the board again when he moved into the end zone on an around end run.

A Jess Jenner to Gegax pass added to the score. Morris Steward added to the score with an extra point to put the Roadrunners out in front with a 20-7 halftime lead.

A safety, along with another Smith touchdown put the game on ice for the Roadrunners.

Brahmas Roll

The Brahmas machine rolled up some 275 yards in offense while giving up only 30 yards to Escondido in their win over the Lobos.

Paul Kleine scored twice, Rick Dodd once, and Jim McPherson, Rick Dodd, John Krings and Mitch Benson added extra points to the Brah-mas offensive cause.

Dave Gladdening intercepted an Escondido pass and ran 43 yards to complete the scoring.

High Praise

The entire coaching staff of the Roadrunners had high praise for both the defense and the offense of the team.

Shorty Banister, head coach, said that quarterback Jess Jenner had one of his better games.

Monte Vista Looks For First Win On Grid Iron Friday Nite

Hopes for a Monte Vista High School football victory has come down to the final game of the season this Friday against Mount Miguel at Monte Vista at 8 p.m.

It's been a long season for the Monarchs and the El Cap Vaqueros didn't make it any easier last Friday as they trounced Monte Vista, 60-19, at the Vaqueros' homecoming.

The Monarch ground defense fell apart as they allowed 428 yards on the ground. And to beat the Matadors, they'll have to sharpen up as Mount Miguel gained over 350 yards on the ground last week against Santana.

The Monarchs scored last week in the second period when Don Scheerer took a 6-yard aerial from Mike Nush for the score. By that time, El Cap led 33-6.

Monte Vista's other scores came in the final quarter on a run of one yard by Richard Hammitt and a 20-yard pass to Bob Martin from Hammitt.

Vince Campoli was the workhorse on offense as he carried nineteen times along with returning kick-offs and punts. His efforts put him in second place in league rushing with 433 yards in 142 carries this season.

Monte Vista is 0-5-1 in league place and currently is in sixth place in the league.

Use Christmas Seals. It's a matter of life and death.

THANK YOU!

I wish to express my thanks to you, the voters of the 77th District, for the support you have shown me. I will continue to represent you to the bst of my ability.

Please keep in touch with me on the important matters facing our state and district. I will make every effort to do what is right for good, responsible government.

Traditional Rivals Helix, Grossmont Clash Friday Nite

By TOM WARREN Helix High School Sports Writer

The Helix High School football squad will meet its traditional rival, Grossmont, tomorrow night on the Scot gridiron at 8 p.m.

Helix will enter the game tied with Grossmont and Granite Hills for second place in the Grossmont League.

A Highlander win tonight, coupled with an El Capitan loss to Santana, would leave the Scots tied for first place with El Cap in the league standings.

An El Capitan 34-14 victory over the Highlanders earlier in the season, would most likely see the Vaqueros selected to represent the league in CIF competition.

The only other way the Helix squad, which is ranked ninth in the county, could enter the CIF championships would be to gain the at-large selection.

Helix and Grossmont come into Friday night's game with identical 4-2 records. The Scots fell to Santana and El Capitan.

Grossmont has lost to Granite Hills and El Capitan.

The teams met earlier this year in the league football carnival, where Helix was nipped 6-0.

Foothills Romp

The Foothillers are coming off a 37-0 romp over El Cajon last week. In that game, which was marred by penalties, the Grossmont eleven racked up 399 yards in total offense.

Their heralded running back, Dennis Sutton, was ejected in the first half of play for unsportsmanlike conduct, but only after he had ran for 23-yards and a Grossmont touchdown.

Grossmont has one of the most potent offenses in the league, averaging 27 points per game, as compared to the 19 that Helix has averaged.

The bulk of the Foothiller scoring has been by Sutton, quarterback Russ Proctor, and tailback Phil Allen.

All three are among the top ten scorers in the league, with 49, 36, and 42 points respectively.

Rhoads Sidelined

Helix is coming off a convincing 13-7 triumph over Granite Hills; a game that was marked by the return of their talented halfback Gene Rhoads.

Rhoads had been sidelined for five weeks with a broken hand suffered in the Santana game.

The senior-made his return noticeable to all early in the Water Polo Team Finishes Third In League

The Monte Vista High School Water Polo team closed out season play last week on a sour note as they lost to Coronado, 6-2.

The Monarchs finished with a 5-3 record for the season to put them in third place in league standings. The Junior varsity team finished place with a 7-1 record.

The Monarchs may have to face Coronado again Saturday, in the first round of the CIF play-offs. Monarch goalie John Kratti made four stops in ten shots in the closing game of the season.

Monte Vista tied the score at 1-1 by half time but gave up four goals in the second half. Scoring for the locals were Rob Morell and Gordon Dunnill.

In the junior varsity, Brad Julihn and Scott Maxwell paced the Monarchs in an overtime match. They had tied the game up at 1-1 at half time, and again at 4-4 in the closing second of play.

Monarch goalie Phil Van Der Pers made 14 saves in 19 shots.

Tax Collector James Jones says that a cancelled check is better evidence of payment than a receipted statement.

Incidentally, Helix Irrigation District, which prides itself on modernity, still uses the old form where the taxpayer relinquishes the entire bill until the computers at Helix compute and return the part you are entitled to.

The savings in postage alone is rather substantial.

Furnishing With Color

Resourceful room designers utilize color when they are limited by a modest budget. They also use color if subtle distinction is wanted when cost is no object. In its use of color every room should, of course, be adapted to the personality of its owner and the part of the world in which it is placed.

The colors and the general design of modern rooms are more closely linked with the fine arts than is usually imagined. Painters and sculptors first feel the movement of new ideas. From painters comes the color palette of today's interior design, and both painters and sculptors have familiarized the public with abstract and unconventional forms which have later been adapted to contemporary room decoration. The modern room designer acknowledges his need of the fine arts by including murals, paintings and sculpture in his room decoration. Often he derives from a modern painting the entire color scheme for an interior.

Compared with usage not so many years ago, color is applied daringly today, in many new and original ways. Ceilings are papered or painted, for example, in colors or patterns quite different from those of the walls. Or one wall is distinguished from the others by an individual treatment. Such innovations, once startling, have now become accepted as practical decorative ideas.

A much wider range of colors is being used by architects, decorators and homemakers than in the immediate past. We know more now about the nuances of color, so that no longer will just a "yellow," for example, be accepted. It has to be exactly the right one — but-tercup yellow, canary yellow, chartreuse; it must be subtle, rich, and definite. We know, too, that the so-called muted tints or the grayed tones are more easily harmonizing than strong, clear colors, but these latter have their place. Turquoise with

DECORATE WITH PHOTOS! 8 MOST-LIKELY PLACES FOR FAMILY GALLERIES

The family collection of portrait and school photographs is an important decorating asset. These favorite pictures can be proudly displayed by homemakers in most any place in the house. And each display adds a certain charm, a personal note to the room in which it is located.

Although there are no hard-and-fast decorating rules for placing photographs in the home, there are eight areas most frequently chosen by families. If you've been looking for an ideal location in the house to hang your portrait gallery, you might consider one of these popular places:

1. Library: In a bookcase or shelf unit, a gallery of portraits can be intermingled with books, objets d'art, and other pictures. These groupings are particularly flexible with the new shelf-units that have grown in popularity over the last few years. The framed portraits might be hung on the wall between two

- shelves, propped in a standing frame atop a shelf, or grouped on a plain wall alongside the bookcase.
2. Family or Leisure Room: Framed simply, school and portrait photographs can be hung on a bare wall in this popular room. This is a good place to group photographs of the children taken over a period of many years — the arrangement will form a meaningful growth record.
3. Bedroom: Portraits are traditionally displayed in this room. Whether one or several photographs are to be used for decoration, follow the new design trends by hanging the pictures on the wall. This helps keep tabletops free of clutter.
4. Guest Room: Portraits and family photographs add a special note of welcome in this room. This is a good place to show off the pictures of children or grandchildren.
5. Hallway or Foyer: A family gallery hung along the wall of this area forms a special greeting to all visitors. The portraits become, in effect, an introduction to the family that resides in this home.
6. Stairway: Portrait photographs, intermixed with prints or other favored art works, can turn this oft-neglected place into an attractive area.

WRAP-AROUND GALLERY of family portrait photographs graces the walls of a guest bedroom. Favorite photos in this room give a warm welcome to visitors. Furniture by Kroehler.

7. Dining Room: Only recently have designers begun to plan imaginative decors for this room, using such accessories as art objects and photographs. One very large color portrait of the man of the household can add a very striking note to a setting. Here, arrangements should be underplayed — one portrait often looks better than several in a gallery display.
8. Living Room: A symmetrical grouping of only portrait photographs... all framed elegantly to blend with the furniture in the room, is an impressive sight when centered above a couch or buffet. This decorating idea is borrowed straight from former centuries, when the wealthy aristocrats would place the oil portraits of their ancestors in the most important spot in the mansion or chateau.

Every house has a nook, cranny or large bare wall which might boast a family gallery display. Although most designers frown on tabletop clutter, some framed portraits can be strategically placed on cabinets or bookcase shelves. Wherever you choose to hang your photograph collection, be sure to plan the arrangement

NEW CABINETS OFFERED WITH VARIED STYLING

Furniture quality wood cabinetry began in the kitchen, but look where you see it now: family room, dining room, den, library — even bath and powder room. The "open area" design of modern home interiors has been responsible for the trend to built-in coordinated cabinets, and kitchen cabinet manufacturers such as I-XL Furniture Company have quickly set the styling pace.

Not too many years ago, the I-XL Furniture Company made only kitchen cabinets. Now the company's range of products includes home management centers, buffet-like credenzas, and bathroom lavanities. Units are made in standard sizes so that rooms of any size and shape can be "furnished" with cabinetry. A variety of styles represents almost every architectural feeling, and a choice of furniture finish colors simplifies interior decorating. The price range is comprehensive enough so that every family—from the budgeting young marrieds to those successfully established for many years—can enjoy the beauty and benefits of I-XL units.

I-XL offers kitchens, home management centers, and credenzas in the following styles: Imperia II... a luxurious cabinet as meticulously crafted as fine furniture, with raised paneling and "picture frame" molding... openwork brass hardware... a deep, dark finish reminiscent of sable.

Sculptured Spicewood... gracious styling with fully paneled door and drawer fronts to give the sculptured effects... brass pulls... and a rich, warm furniture finish.

Hearthside... timeless country charm... tongue and groove planking effect in a lacquered honey-tone finish...

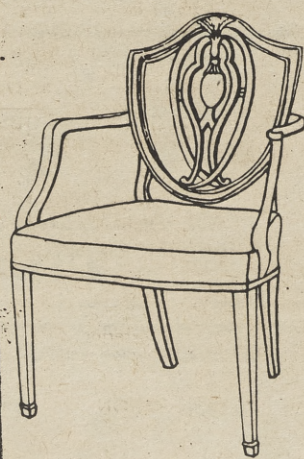

hardware with a cast brass plate and key type pull.

Shadow-wood... crisply modern with bevel-edge drawer and door fronts that cast softening shadows... spicewood finish... wood hardware with accents of brass.

All cabinets are outfitted with I-XL's "housewife approved" conveniences: adjustable shelves in wall cabinets, gold anodized sliding wire shelves in base cabinets, and I-XL's exclusive "Sta-Close" drawers.

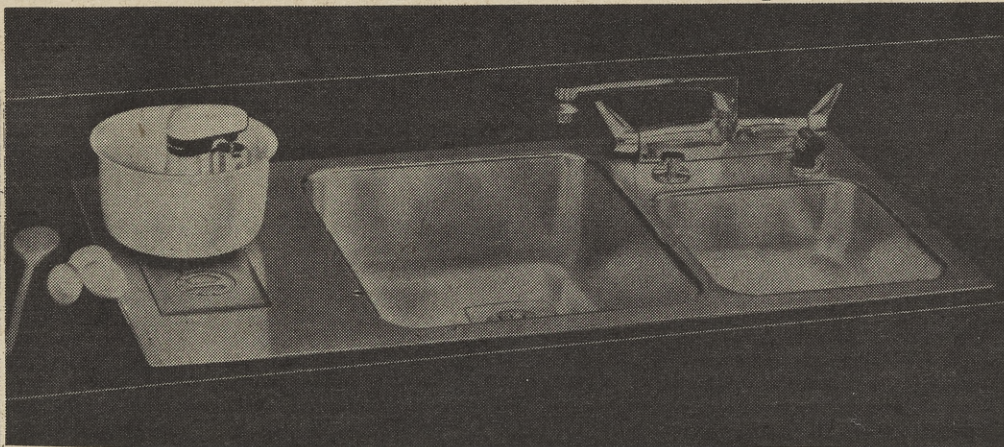

I-XL lavanities include the "housewife approved" conveniences, plus hammers, add-on shelf units, and bowl bases in a variety of sizes. They are available in Imperia II and Sculptured Spicewood, as well as: Satingold... a white and gold version of Sculptured Spicewood, Golden Shadows... news in your newspaper's woman's pages. These publications contain room layouts, suggestions for solving specific architectural problems and innumerable color photographs of well planned rooms. From the varied styles and color combinations, pick your favorites and file them for future reference.

Sinks Wherever Needed Is A New Fix Up Idea

CUISINE CENTER OFFERS BUILT-IN FOOD SERVICE UNIT. Reflecting the high styling available in sinks of stainless steel is this multi-purpose facility. Available in a variety of models, this double compartment unit features a NuTone power unit mounted left or right of compartments. Complete with a mixer, blender and knife sharpener, it is designed to save the homemaker's time and energy. Cuisine Centre offered by Elkay Manufacturing Company.

A new concept in gracious living and step saving convenience is taking hold rapidly among home builders and buyers.

It is the provision for running water, complete with smartly styled sinks, wherever it is needed in and around the home.

This advance in home planning is being spurred by the Elkay Manufacturing Co., leading manufacturer of stainless steel sinks.

Aptly called sinkronizing, the innovation marks the end of an era in which the kitchen sink usually reigned as the all-purpose sink in the house. The inconveniences resulting from that outdated arrangement are happily becoming only memories in many households according to Elkay.

The sinkronized home features running water and a handy stainless steel sink at strategic locations dictated by the needs of gracious living states the company.

In the kitchen, for example are two sinks for mother—one for food preparation and one for clean-up chores. In addition there is a sink in the laundry, the utility rooms and the garden room.

For father, there is a sink in the workshop, one in the bar and perhaps another in the den. In the basement, garage or rear entry is a sink for the youngsters' use in tidying up after hard outdoor play. The entire family, as well as guests, enjoy the convenience of a sink in the recreation room.

For your free copy of the 16 page booklet, "Water Can Serve You Throughout Your Home," showing the full range of sinks available, write to Elkay Manufacturing Company, 2700 S. 17th Avenue, Broadview, Ill., 60153.

Be Sure Your Decorating Expresses YOU... Become More Knowledgeable

What, exactly, is a Hepplewhite chair? More important, who wants to know?

To answer the second question first, it's safe to say the answer is millions of women. Standardized furnishings are a thing of the past. The current trend is toward decor that reflects a family's tastes and interests.

For years, most women followed one of two courses in selecting items for the home.

If their budgets permitted a fairly large expenditure, they consulted a decorator who planned a room, or an entire home, right down to the ashtrays and the knobs on the doors.

If money was limited, they went to a favorite furniture or department store and picked the items that came closest to what they wanted. Either way, they often found themselves with a house full of furniture that could have belonged to anyone on the block.

Now, however, women are delving successfully into the art and craft of decoration. Taking into account the needs and wishes of their families, they're choosing appropriate color schemes, furniture and decorative touches that turn four walls into a home. And they have found that decorating is satisfying, exciting and simple.

If you want to personalize your own home, keep in mind just one basic rule: know before you buy. From three major sources of information, you can gain decorating skill in no time.

First, collect recent issues of several good decorating magazines and watch for decorating

Rent the Equipment You Need, Avoid Upkeep and Storage Woes, Enjoy Exceptional Savings, Too

A growing tide of home-owners are investing their sweat and capital in improving older homes, rather than building from scratch, according to a study by a national rental company providing all types of tools and equipment to meet this burgeoning demand.

The increasingly high cost of professional remodeling coupled to an apparent new appreciation for older home styles is stimulating a marked upswing in the rental of the basic tools of home alteration, reports Robert Sheridan, president of A to Z Rental, Inc., Chicago-based national system of franchised general rental outlets.

Such upswings foreshadow increased home remodeling activity at the significantly lower "do-it-yourself" costs, he says.

"The fact is, older homes — both in the city and small towns — are being rejuvenated at a faster pace," Sheridan states. "There is a solidity and spaciousness in many of the older homes and apartments that can't be duplicated nowadays without exorbitant investment. But facelifting an older structure, people find, can be well within their cash reserves."

"By all our indications, 1968 should be a major comeback year for older houses."

They offer this typical situation with typical options:

The House — $25 to $50 thousand. Three or four bedrooms; 1½ or 2 baths, unfinished basement; clapboard exterior on house and detached garage; plaster and lath walls; 30 to 60 years old.

The Work —

- Enlargement of living, dining and/or foyer areas by knocking out non-supporting partitions;
- Replastering and re-papering;
- Refinishing floors;
- Repainting exterior of house and garage;

e. Venting through concrete basement wall to accommodate a dryer or other appliance;

f. Un-plugging sink and shower traps;

g. Thorough shampoo of carpeting and area rugs.

The Planning — First, break down all desired work into two categories: immediate and postponable. Make a list of the tools you'll need. Decide which tools you'll use a lot and wish to purchase. A to Z Rental Centers report that some persons arrive at a mixed formula, preferring to own the less costly and more frequently used, easily maintained tools

Wheelbarrow	four days @ $2 per day	$8
Wet/Dry Vacuum	four days @ $5 per day	$20
Paint Spray Equipment	three days @ $13.50 per day	$40.50

Demolition Hammer	two days @ $15 per day	$30

Personalize Lawn With Ornaments

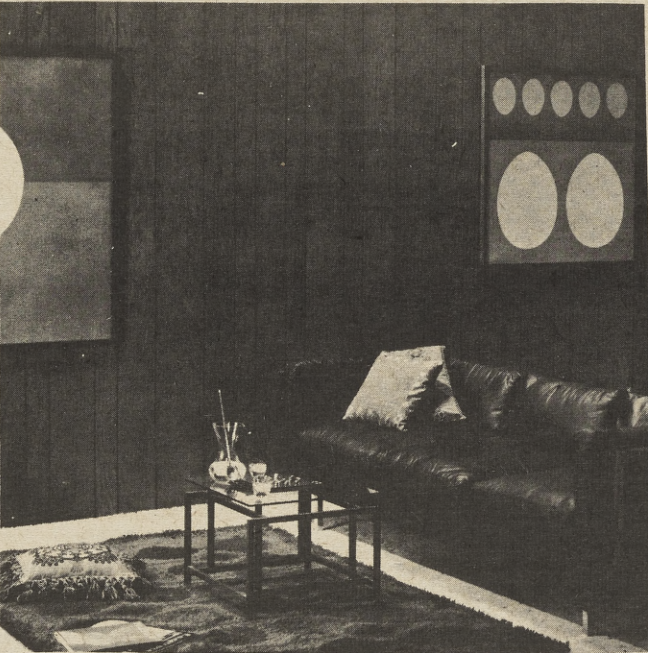

A tasteful choice of garden ornaments can lead a new note of interest and dramatic impact to a lawn, according to the American Association of Nurserymen. But whether it's an elegant fountain or a simple paving-stone walk, it should be an integral part of the landscaping scheme, not an obvious afterthought.

A garden ornament generally looks best when it forms a focal point such as at the end of a garden path, in a corner of a lawn where paths meet, in the middle of a little garden, or near a garden pool. It shouldn't be placed as an exhibit but rather as a foil or point of contrast with the living plants in the garden.

AVOCADO PANELING INTRIGUING DECOR

Delicate tones of avocado have been added to Georgia-Pacific Chateau Oak hardwood plywood paneling to help brighten room decor. The new paneling, readily installed in any situation, is random planked and factory finished. G-P Chateau panelings are available nationally in more than 30 other styles. Avocado also has been added to hickory paneling choices.

of rose, pink, lavender, or mauve coloring. A sundial set amidst China roses, lavender or purple Aubrieta, for example, makes a charming traditional garden picture. In a small formal garden, a sundial or birdbath usually is placed in the center. They are often raised and surrounded by paving stone. Low-growing plants, such as thyme, pinks and others, look well around the base.

Seek New Varieties Of Common Shrubs

Prominent nurseries usually have the newest varieties of the more common shrubs offered for sale to home owners, according to experts. Often the difference in price may be only nominal for a variety that is outstanding and will give pleasure for many years.

The best way to obtain the best varieties is to go to the best nurseries and mail order catalogs. These nurseries constantly are on the lookout for the newly developed shrubs having superior characteristics. Secondly, they will exhibit photos of the new varieties so you know what you are getting.

Garden Variety - Variegation

Adding to the interest of contemporary landscapes is the use of variegated plant materials, which attract attention to themselves without dominating the scene.

A landscape that contains dozens of the same shrub would be very monotonous, and unappealing. Likewise, excessive use of plants with variegated foliage would lack appeal. Used discriminately, variegated shrubs definitely are worthy of consideration for highlighting the garden.

To say these shrubs are a key to garden variety is not an overstatement. Besides the interesting shapes and textures of individual variegated plants, the colorations provide garden "color" without blooms.

This is borne-out by the well known Gold Dust Plant (Acuba), which adds zest to the shade garden with its speckled foliage.

How about the Euonymus. Gold Spot with its vivid yellow-gold and green foliage, and Silver King, a combination of cream-white and green, are but two that excel in the landscape. Medium growers, all Euonymus prefer a sunnier spot; thus eliminating the threat of mildew which occurs when the shrubs are planted in too shady areas.

Variegated Flax is a favorite accent plant with Californians. Its sword-like leaves grow in an interesting vase shape that is highlighted by creamy yellow and green markings. Lesser-known False Holly (Osmanthus ilicifolius variegatus) is a good choice for tucking-in in garden plantings. It dislikes the hot summer sun of inland valleys, but in the right spot, its green and yellow foliage is a refreshing sight.

Members of the California Association of Nurserymen have other variegated plants for consideration. Variegation shows-up in the Privets, in conifers such as Arborvitae, and in the Myrtle family. There are even indoor plants that spot interesting variegated colorations.

Remodeling? Follow These Tips When Choosing Firm

Make sure that the company you choose is a local, established firm — one that is listed in the telephone book and has been around long enough to know its business well. Be sure your modernizer will be around to take care of any repairs that may be called for after the job is done. Generally speaking, it is a good idea to work with a firm that is willing to take full responsibility for the complete project under one contract — providing all necessary materials and labor at a fixed price. This may be a home improvement contractor, a lumber or building materials dealer, a home builder, or a general contractor. Whatever the label, whatever his classification he is your home modernizer when you sign a contract calling for him to add a room to your house.

A qualified home modernizer takes over all of the worrisome details and obtains the basic room addition plans. Then, with your help and suggestions, he prepares an exact plan tailored to your needs. He obtains the building permits that are needed in almost all add-a-room jobs. He arranges for financing under terms that fit your financial circumstances. He provides expert supervision of carpenters and other workmen while the job is in progress. Finally, he provides service, or repairs, after the job is completed if they are needed. If the company provides the names of other people for whom it has worked as references, by all means contact them to check on the quality of work.

Don't sign document that has blank spaces.

The most important step in your add-a-room project is that of choosing the company that will do the job. To make sure that you will get your money's worth, it is essential to "investigate before you invest," just as you would with any other major purchase.

Electric Heat Does More

Electric furnace. Circulates filtered warm air. Any time you choose you can combine it with a central air-conditioning (cooling) unit.

● It's the heating system that lets you dial the amount of heat you want in every room, accurately and independently.

● It's the heating system you convert to when fossil-fueled heating systems disappoint or fail you.

● It's the heating system that is the easiest and most economical to convert to. With flameless electric heat, you can continue to use your present warm air duct-work or hot water piping to supply the heat. The only thing you have to throw out is the old-fashioned fuel-burning furnace.

● It's the only heating system that can replace a huge, inefficient fuel-burning furnace with a small, flameless electric furnace that does a much better job of heating.

● It's the only heating system that has such a wide choice of heating units and styles, to satisfy every decorating scheme and every heating need. There are resistance cables that are completely hidden in the ceiling, attractive baseboard radiators, recessed panel heaters and all kinds of spot heaters for hallways, bathrooms, patios and other hard-to-heat places.

● It's the only heating system that automatically places your home in a high price bracket.

Flameless electric heat is all of these things and many more. It's the newest way to heat your home and the nicest way to show your family that comfort counts most. One phone call to your local contractor or electric utility company is all it takes to discover why conversion to flameless electric heat could be the best thing.

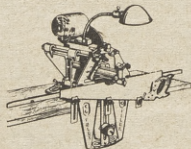

What is flameless electric heat and what can it do for you? Here, according to the Edison Electric Institute, are the answers.

● Flameless electric heat is the only heating method that is 100% efficient. Every bit of electricity you pay for creates heat for you. No heat disappears up a chimney.

● It's the heating system that is quietest of all. There are no background noises to disturb you or wear you down.
